

ATP TODAY

As Muslims living in these difficult times, we increasingly face challenges to our individual and communal identity. ATP is dedicated to alleviating this struggle and forging a path for Muslims in the 21st century that spreads the light of knowledge in North America, In-sha'Allah. ATP seeks to produce literature that educates Muslims and non-Muslims alike, and that simultaneously engages our readers in a dialogue about Islamic values, teachings and future in this world.

A DIVISION OF
NORTH AMERICAN ISLAMIC TRUST
(NAIT)

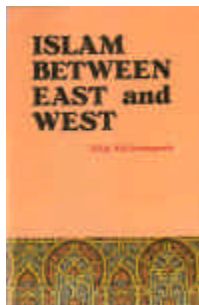

Decades of Excellence

The North American Islamic Trust (NAIT) established ATP in 1976 to provide informative and spiritual Islamic literature to Muslims and non-Muslims in North America. At a time when the only material about Islam available to the general population was biased and reductive, ATP stepped in to fill the vacuum by offering balanced, accurate, and dynamic Islamic literature. ATP has published or translated over 170 titles from authors of diverse backgrounds and disciplines. As the leading Islamic publishing house on the continent at the time, ATP strove then and is still dedicated to serving the literary needs of the Muslim community.

ATP & You

ATP is committed to harnessing the intellectual and spiritual resources of the Muslim community in North America. We strive to facilitate the Muslim community in implementing Islamic faith and practice in its daily life, and in rising to the task of serving Islam's dynamic role in the modern world. We simultaneously endeavor to enhance Muslims' dialogue with other communities, by inviting non-Muslim authors to work with us.

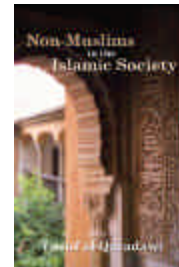

Authors ATP strives to uphold the highest standards of accuracy, clarity, and Islamic propriety in each of its publications. We continually seek fresh submissions and invite you to send us your manuscript or articles. Our review process is designed to be efficient, yet thorough. We maintain mutually respectful and cooperative relationships with our authors—from review to editing to press.

Authors who have ideas for a book, but have not rendered them into formal writing, are welcome to contact us. ATP will review them with you. Once we determine that they meet our criteria, ATP will work with you in developing a manuscript for publication, and delivering it to final production.

Reviewers Peer reviewers with background in a manuscript's subject matter are vital to ensuring quality in the end product. A reviewer's evaluation of a piece enables ATP to produce literature that meets the highest standards of professionalism in publication. If you have expertise in a particular area of academic scholarship and would be interested in reviewing writings for ATP, please send us your resume.

Translators Many of our publications are translated works from Arabic, Urdu, and other languages. Contact us if you are an accomplished translator and are interested in working with ATP.

Artists ATP is always looking for artists to design cover pages and other illustrations for our books. Please send us samples of your artwork.
